Friday Letter 11 December 2009

Good Day, Fellow Big Dogs

I'm back from the sunny Caribbean just in time to enjoy the relatively frigid temperatures of southern Alabama! Transitioning from 95 degrees to the high 30s is really interesting and a lot of fun! Not!

Well, it looks like numerous congratulations are due, so let's get right to them.

The big news is the GCC/Thomco team's selection as one of two Saber contractors at Eglin Air Force Base. This really calls for four paws up and two or three tail wags!!!

The GCC/Thomco Hurlburt MFH team's contract has now been officially extended. Yea for them!!

Quote of the Week

I don't know the key to success, but the key to failure is trying to please everybody.

Bill Cosby

In order to succeed, your desire for success should be greater than your fear of failure.

Ben Waltman is a newly married man (see attached photos although you may have difficulty recognizing him) and has completed his honeymoon and returned to work. Congratulations!!

Rich Port and his wife welcomed a new addition. Gracen Marie Port (7 pounds, 8 ounces, 20.5 inches long and much cuter than Rich as can be seen in the attached photo) arrived on 3 December. Congratulations!!

I have yet to see it with my own eyes, but rumor has it that Paola has once again turned the corporate headquarters into a bastion of Christmas by applying festive decorations.

Speaking of Christmas, remember that the Company Christmas party is next Saturday at the Pelican Beach Resort. 6:00 is the witching hour, so don't be late.

Once again, time flies and so must I. Until next time keep up the good work and remain SAFE (Stay Accident Free Everywhere).
