Ft. Walton Beach, FL (February 2009) Thomco Enterprises Inc was honored by the Okaloosa County Martin Luther King Committee with their 2008 W. T. McKinnie Business Service Award. This award is presented annually to a Business that made significant contributions to the community.

Thomco's community service activities include establishing, funding and managing the Yolanda D. Thomas Scholarship Endowment Fund, one of the largest contributors to the Northwest Florida State College Foundation. It provided five scholarships in 2008. In addition the company supported numerous activities such as the United Way's Loaned Executive and Day of Caring programs, provided paid time off to mentors, supported the Emerald Coast Poker Run, made numerous donations to deserving local organizations and allowed many organizations to use its facilities for meetings.
